AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRIES CONFEDERATION

DINNER & CONFERENCE 10 & 11 NOV 2026

Delegates information

Delivering for the Agri-Food Supply Chain in an Ever-Changing World

Addington Fund

Charity Partner

About AIC

The Agricultural Industries Confederation (AIC) is the leading trade body for the agri-supply industry.

AIC represents over 230 Member companies across several sectors, including animal feed, crop protection, fertiliser, grain and oilseeds, and seed.

Member companies supply over £17 billion of inputs to UK farms - the vital foundation to a £156 billion-plus food and drink sector.

This year's event:

AIC's Dinner will commence at 19:30 on the 10 November. As well as a sumptuous meal, this black tie event will feature a key after-dinner speaker.

AIC's Conference will commence at 09:00 on the 11 November, with a full speaker agenda of thought leaders from political, business and academia.

AIC Dinner & Conference

Established in 2003, AIC's Dinner & Conference brings together AIC Member companies, industry stakeholders, academia, and policymakers, to network, inform and influence.

AIC's Conference leads the debate on ensuring a modern, sustainable and commercial agricultural supply industry for UK food supply chains.

IN PERSON EVENT

at Holiday Inn West, Peterborough, PE3 6SG

AIC Represents:

- 230 agribusinesses
- £17bn+ of farm inputs
- 43K direct and indirect employees
- 4K+ Participants in AIC Trade Assurance schemes

Networking. Informing. Influencing.

Find out more: aicconference.org.uk

Delivering for the Agri-Food Supply Chain in an Ever-Changing World

AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRIES CONFEDERATION
DINNER & CONFERENCE 10 & 11 NOV 2026

AIC's Dinner and Conference is well respected in the agri-supply industry and with stakeholders in the food-supply chain. The Conference attracts a high calibre of speakers from the business, scientific, and political communities.

This year's conference theme, "Delivering for the Agri-Food Supply Chain in an Ever-Changing World" will focus on the key issues facing the agri-supply industry, with prompt thought and debate at sessions throughout the day.

AIC's Dinner & Conference will take place at the Holiday Inn West, Thorpe Wood, Peterborough, PE3 6SG. There will be networking opportunities and a trade exhibition.

Booking options:

Full options on how to book the Dinner and Conference can be found on AIC's website. Bookings are flexible, so as a delegate you can chose to attend all of the event, or just the Dinner or Conference.

Confirmed speakers include:

Stephen Morgan MP
Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs

Tom Bradshaw
President - National Farmers' Union (NFU)

Alexander Döring
Secretary General - European Feed Manufacturers' Federation (FEFAC)

Vanessa Adamson
Retail & Consumer Insight Manager - Agriculture and Horticulture Development Board (AHDB)

The Conference will be chaired by

Anna Jones
Journalist and Broadcaster

Other invited speakers include: Jim Fairlie MSP, Minister for Agriculture, Marine and the Islands, Scotland; Llyr Gruffydd MS, Cabinet Minister for Rural Resilience and Sustainability, Wales; and Andrew Muir MLA, Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Northern Ireland.

Top three reasons why you should attend:

1. Networking
   Meet with other industry colleagues to consider industry issues, and opportunies for the future.
2. Informing
   Listen to thought leaders that will influence your organisation in terms of the political, technical and business impact.
3. Influence key decision makers
   Make your voice heard with key stakeholders to support sustainable and productive agriculture.

Networking. Informing. Influencing.

Find out more: aicconference.org.uk