

Delegates information

Managing New Global Norms in the Agri-Food Supply Chain

AIC's Dinner will commence at 19:30 on the 11 November. As well as a sumptuous meal, this black tie event will feature a key after-dinner speaker.

AIC's Conference will commence at 09:00 on the 12 November, with a full speaker agenda of thought leaders from political, business and academia.

AIC Dinner & Conference

Established in 2003, AIC's Dinner & Conference brings together AIC Member companies, industry stakeholders, academia, and policy makers, to network, inform and influence.

AIC's Conference leads the conversation on supporting a modern, sustainable, commercial agricultural supply industry for food supply chains in the UK.

AIC Represents:

- 230 agribusinesses
- £17bn+ of farm inputs
- 43,000 direct and indirect employees
- 4,000+ AIC Assurance Scheme Participants

IN PERSON EVENT

at Holiday Inn West, Peterborough

Managing New Global Norms in the Agri-Food Supply Chain

AIC's Dinner and Conference is well respected in the agri-supply industry and with stakeholders in the food-supply chain. The Conference attracts a high calibre of speakers from the business, scientific, and political communities.

This year's conference theme, "Managing New Global Norms in the Agri-Food Supply Chain" will focus on the key issues facing the agri-supply industry, with prompt thought and debate at sessions throughout the day.

AIC's Dinner & Conference will take place at the Holiday Inn West, Thorpe Wood, Peterborough, PE3 6SG. There will be networking opportunities and a trade exhibition.

Booking options:

Full options on how to book the Dinner and Conference can be found on AIC's website. Bookings are flexible, so as a delegate you can chose to attend all of the event, or just the Dinner or Conference.

Dr Pete FalloonThe Met Office's Science Lead - Food Security

Kelly Hewson-FisherSavills - Head of Rural Research

Confirmed speakers include:

Dr Elliott GrantUniversity of Cambridge

Sam Lowe Flint Global - Partner

The Conference will be chaired by Caz Graham Radio Broadcaster and Reporter

Other invited speakers include: Dame Angela Eagle MP - Minister of State for Food Security & Rural Affairs, Mairi Gougeon - MSP, Cabinet Secretary for Rural Affairs & Islands, Scotland, Huw Irranca Davies, Cabinet Secretary for Climate Change and Rural Affairs, Wales and Andrew Muir - MLA, Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, Northern Ireland.

Top three reasons why you should attend:

Networking

Meet with other industry colleagues to consider industry issues, and opportunies for the future.

Informing

2 Listen to thought leaders that will influence your organisation in terms of the political, technical and business impact.

Influence key decision makers

Make your voice heard with key stakeholders to support sustainable and productive agriculture.

